Subject: Multiple applications for the same equipment with the same model number – reg.

It is observed that some OEMs re-apply and/or submit multiple applications for certification under MTCTE for the same equipment with the same model number which already has a valid certificate of Conformity Assessment.

2. It may be noted that Certificate is issued to an OEM for an equipment with a particular Model having a unique model number.

3. Therefore, OEMs are advised not to make multiple applications for the same equipment with the same model number which already has a valid certificate of Conformity Assessment. If any such application(s)/certificate(s) exist, the same may be informed by e-mail to adgtc2-tec-dot@gov.in by 31st January, 2026.

4. Subsequently, if at any stage it is detected that OEM has applied for multiple applications for the same equipment with the same model number, all such applications under process will be rejected and the Certificate already granted to the OEM for the same equipment with the same model number will be cancelled.

5. However, if multiple applications for an equipment with the same main model is made only for the purpose of the addition of Associated Models, a declaration in respect of the 'application being made only for addition of associated models and with no change (hardware/software) in the already certified equipment' as per the Annexure-I (enclosed) is to be submitted by the OEM along with the test reports.

6. This issues with the approval of competent authority.
